

06/01/2026:
Stopwatch Nightclub

Sleep paralysis
opened the door.

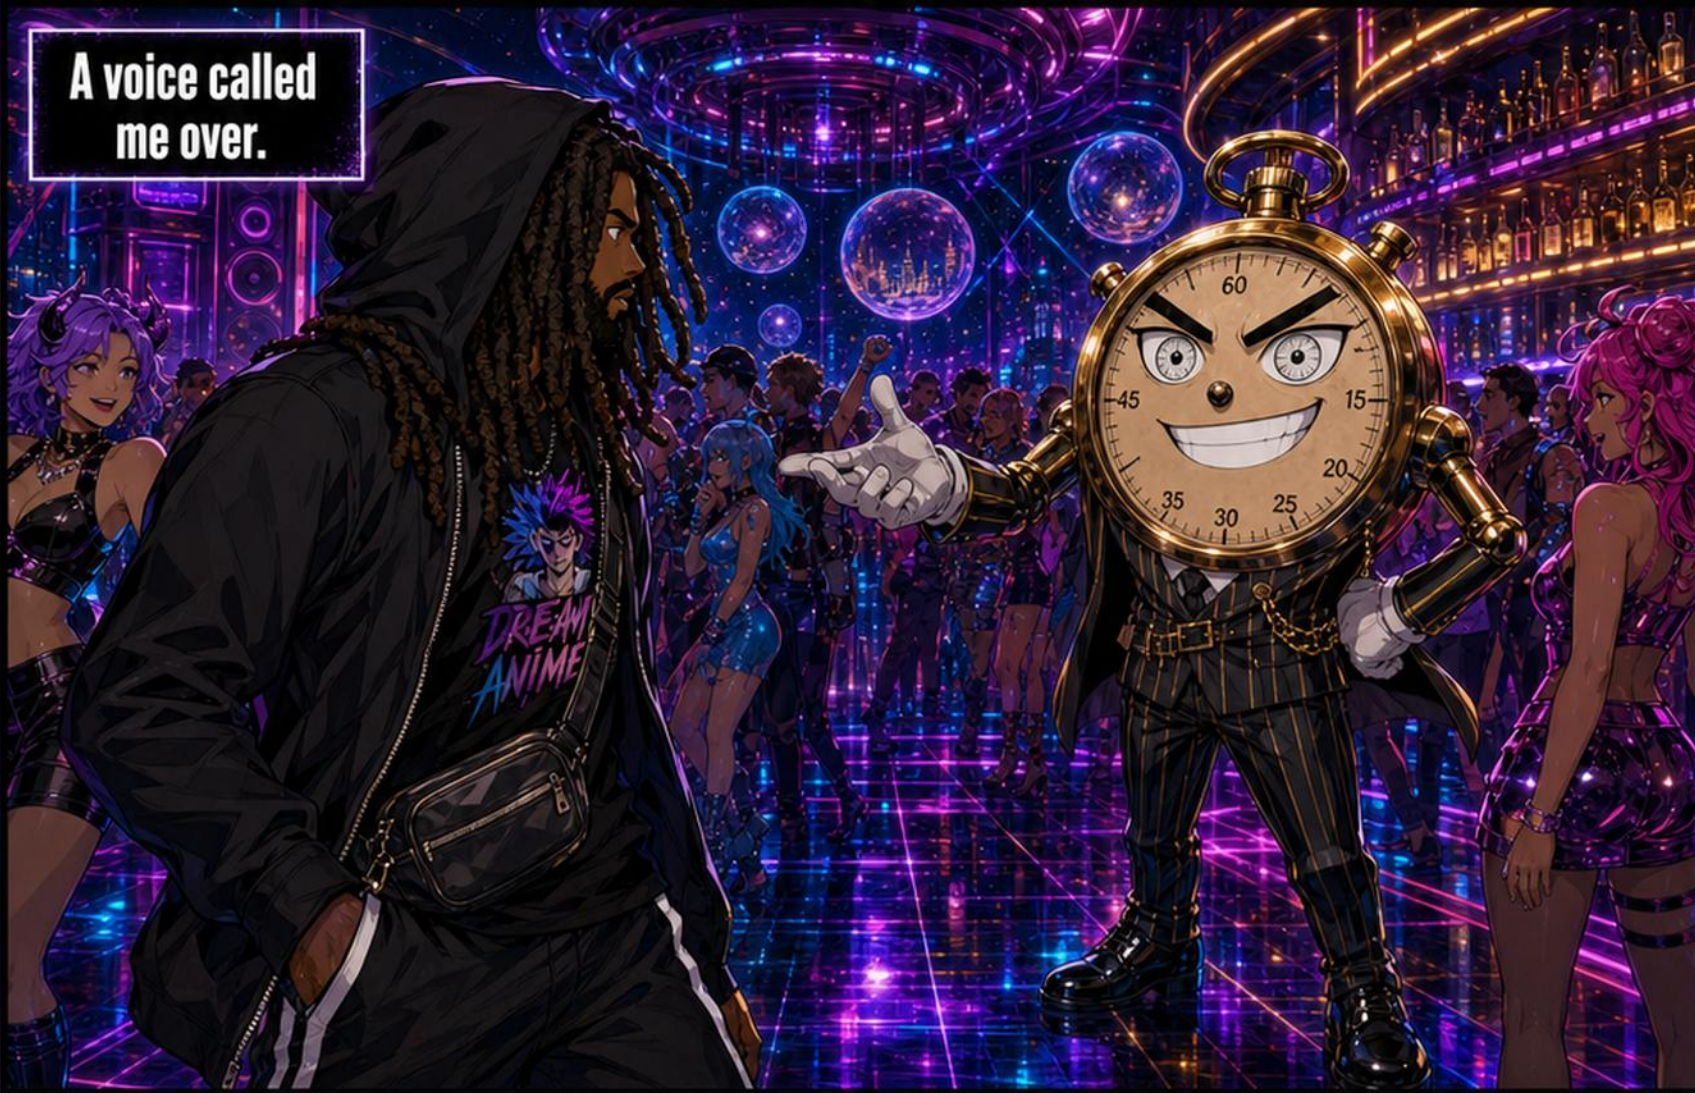

The Storyverse
gave me a nightclub.

I arrived alone.

A voice called me over.

Mr. Stopwatch
had bad news.

Only seconds remained.

Everyone inside was already in the blast radius.

I needed
my crew.

Lucid Light became
the watch.

Skelebot
answered first.

Speed took over.

One trip
became ten.

Ten became a blur.

The street filled with
saved strangers.

Then Stopwatch
smiled.

He said the bomb was never stationary.

I scanned the crowd.

One guest
was an android.

His pressure reading
was going critical.

I was fast,
but not fast enough.

Speed failed
the final second.

So I chose strength.

LLV-Tecton
built the shield.

The dome held.

Authorities came
for the attacker.

Stopwatch tried to slip away.

LLV-Leon
ended the chase.

The saved night
fell behind me.
