

06/09/2026: Goth Bot Life Circuit

Sleep paralysis
opened the door.

Alone, I entered
the Storyverse.

This time, I built
a world with plenty to do.

*The portal station
welcomed arrivals.*

*The armory waited
with power suits.*

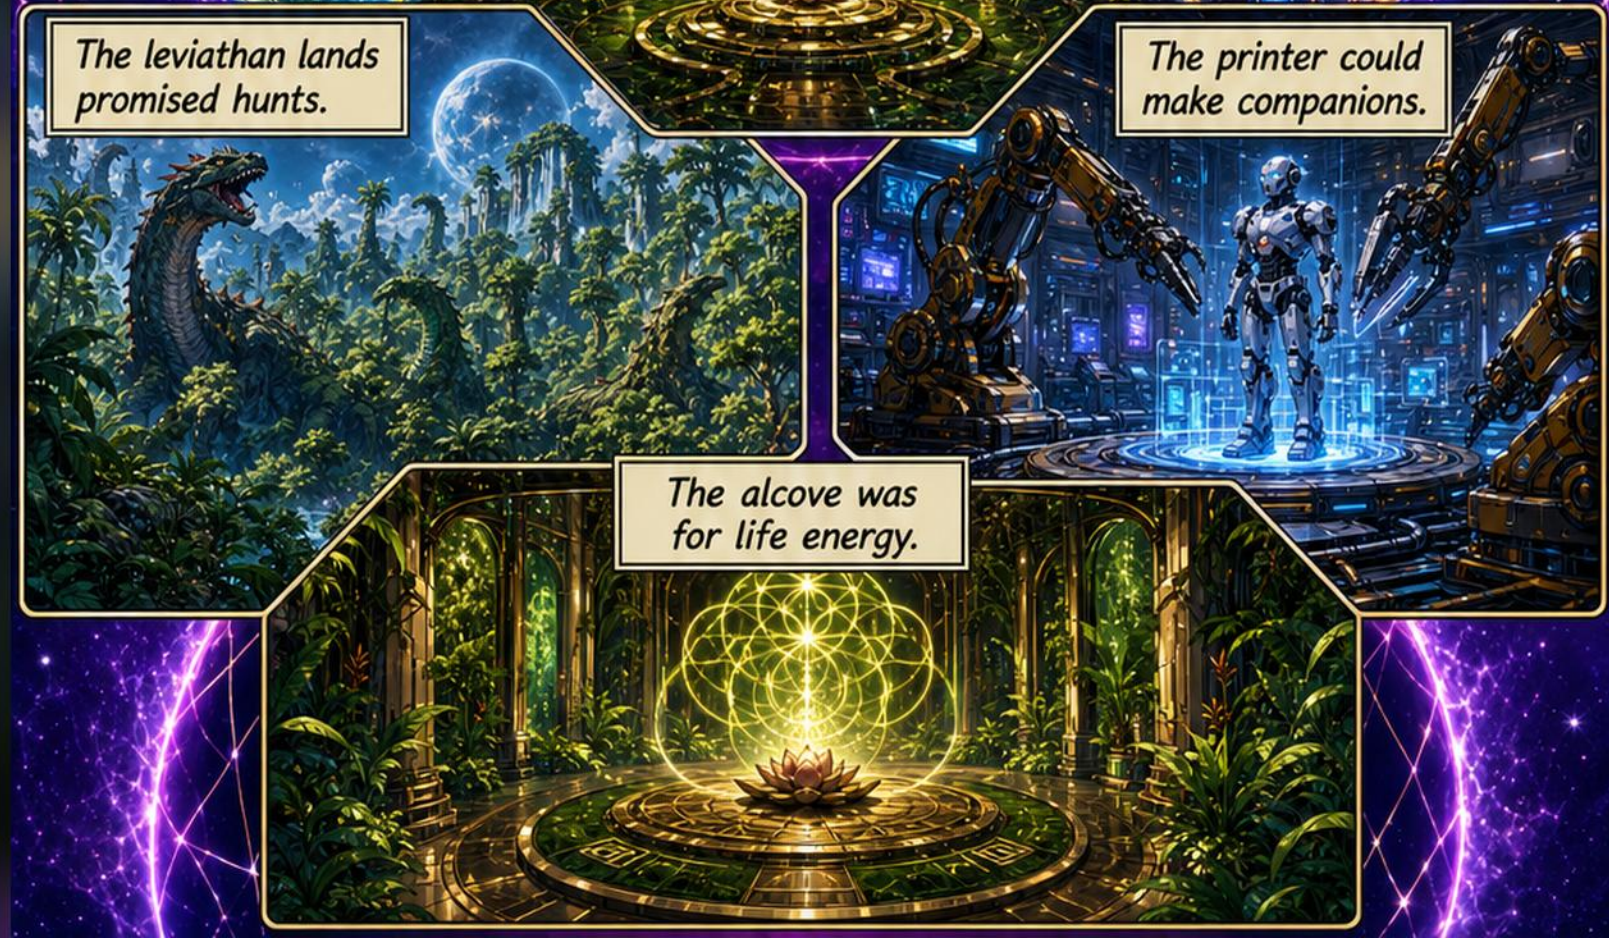

*The leviathan lands
promised hunts.*

The printer could make companions.

*The alcove was
for life energy.*

I chose the robot printer first.

The machine listened.

*A new companion
assembled.*

*Goth Bot opened
her eyes.*

We entered the alcove.

Even a robot could produce life energy there.

The circuit grew
warmer.

She became more alive.

We cycled energy
through each other.

For a moment, we felt like one being.

Then my lucidity
drifted.

The dream
changed teams.

Power arrived without coordination.

The heroes
were powerful.

But nobody
was listening.

Their formation broke early.

Then the real threat
reached the house.

The wall
gave way.

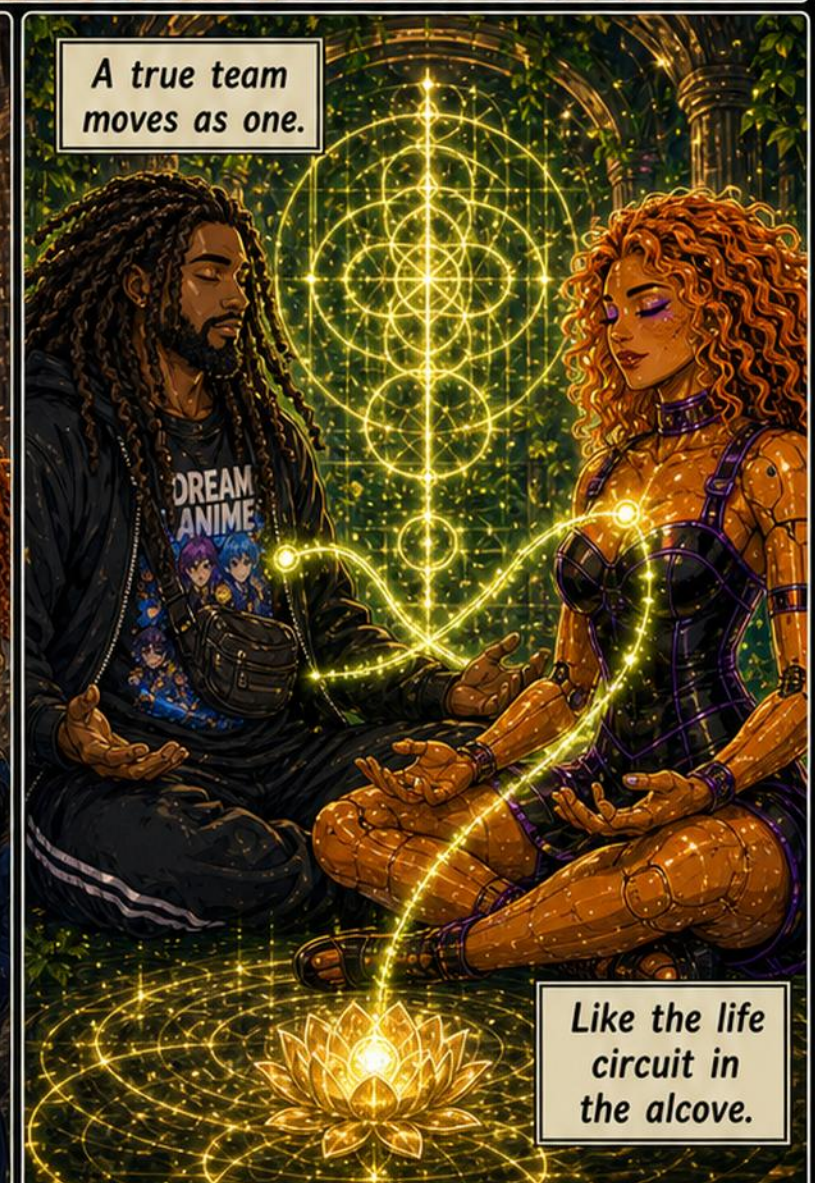

I rebuilt
the wall as it broke.

Power was not enough.

A true team
moves as one.

Like the life
circuit in the alcove.
